

Curriculum Vitae

Mag. Beismann Michael

15.10.1975

Current Profession

Independent Geographer

regionalSynergie GmbH - Mag. Michael Beismann
Engineering Consultants for Geography
Weissgattererstrasse 16/3, 6020 Innsbruck, Austria
beismann@regionalsynergie.com, +43 664 5251898

Activities and Projects: please visit www.regionalsynergie.com

Employee for scientific projects with resp. for the university of Innsbruck and Eurac Research Bolzano.

Applied Geography, regional development in the periphery and the European Alps, science transfer into society, science & arts, spatial modeling, holistic solutions.

- Initiator of several projects aiming to raise significance of rural areas in the Alps (Member of the ForAlps, Coworkation-Alp Network etc.).
- Manager of several projects for practical implementation with scientific approach concerning building vacancy, spatial planning and regional development.
- scientific adviser of the art documentary film The New Wild: Life in the Abandoned Lands (Christopher Thomson) and Rettet das Dorf (Nikolaus Geyrhalter Filmproduktion GmbH)
- academic teaching
- Mapping transformations of the cultural landscape

Academic research and teaching

University of Innsbruck, Department of Geography

- Teaching the 3-semester specialization course for spatial development and regional research (2017/18 and 19/20) and annually excursions on regional Geography in the European Alps for University of Innsbruck; guest lecturer at University of Passau (Ger. 2020)
- Member of the research group DCA – Demographic Change in the Alps ongoing and former projects:
  - EUMINT – Euroregioni, Migrazione e Integrazione (INTERREG 2019)
  - Current Demographic Changes in the European Alps, Effects on the Autochthonous Linguistic Minorities (FWF 2013-2016)
  - The Impact of Current Demographic Transformation on Ethno-Linguistic Minorities in the Italian Alps (FWF 2009-2012)

Academic education

Mag.rer.nat. (Master of Science) of Geography, University of Innsbruck 2009

Former/other activities

certified teacher: Lehrwart für Hochalpin

Assistant coach of the Austrian National Ski Jumping Team, Austrian Ski Association 2002-2006 (including Olympic Winter Games in Turin 2006)