

Curriculum Vitae

Mag. Beismann Michael

15.10.1975

Current Profession

Independent Geographer

regionalSynergie e.U. - Mag. Michael Beismann
Engineering Consultants for Geography
Weissgattererstrasse 16, 6020 Innsbruck, Austria
beismann@regionalsynergie.com, +43 664 5251898

Applied Geography, regional development in the periphery, science transfer into society, science & arts, spatial modeling, holistic solutions.

Current activities 2018:

- Initiator of several projects aiming to raise significance of rural areas in the Alps – practical implementation with scientific approach (Member of the ForAlps and Coworkation-Alp Network)
- Scientific adviser for a movie documentary on the revitalization of peripheral villages
- Project Manager of the newly established cooperation between Innsbruck Nature Film Festival and the University of Innsbruck
- Co-Producer of the scientific art film The New Wild: Life in the Abandoned Lands (in cooperation with the University of Innsbruck, eurac etc.)
- Mapping transformations of the cultural landscape

Academic research and teaching

University of Innsbruck, Department of Geography

- Teaching the 3-semester specialization course for Spatial Development and Regional Research
- Member of the research group DCA – Demographic Change in the Alps ongoing and former projects:
 - EUMINT – Euroregioni, Migrazione e Integrazione (INTERREG, ongoing)
 - Current Demographic Changes in the European Alps,
Effects on the Autochthonous Linguistic Minorities (FWF 2013-2016)
 - The Impact of Current Demographic Transformation on Ethno-Linguistic Minorities in the Italian Alps (FWF 2009-2012)

Academic education

Mag.rer.nat. (Master of Science) of Geography, University of Innsbruck 2009

Former/other activities

Assistant coach of the Austrian National Ski Jumping Team, Austrian Ski Association 2002-2006 (including Olympic Winter Games in Turin 2006)